HLB expands its reach in Thailand

BANGKOK – HLB continues its growth in Thailand, as it welcomes its newest member firm in the region.

The firm – previously BDO Thailand and now known as HLB Thailand - is one of the country’s leading professional services firms with expertise in audit and assurance, tax advisory including transfer pricing and outsourcing. HLB Thailand’s client base covers a variety of industries including construction, manufacturing and hospitality. The firm’s office is in Bangkok, the capital of Thailand.

The firm is led by Co-Managing Partners, Andrew Jackomos and Paul Ashburn. Commenting on joining HLB, Paul Ashburn says: “I speak for the entire team when I say that we are thrilled to be joining the newly crowned Network of the year, and the opportunity to better serve our clients in Thailand.”

Coco Liu, Chief Regional Officer for Asia Pacific commented: “We are extremely pleased to welcome HLB Thailand. As one of the country’s top ranked firms, their expertise, particularly in audit and capital market services, will prove invaluable to not only our clients in the Asia Pacific region, but globally. They will work in close collaboration with our existing Thai member firm, to create even greater value and synergies between this important market and the rest of the world.”

The addition of HLB Thailand continues our transformation and moves us closer to achieving our Shaping our Shared Future objectives.
