HLB appoints member firm in Bolivia

LA PAZ – HLB, the global network of independent advisory and accounting firms, continues its growth with the recent appointment of its newest member firm, HLB Bolivia.

HLB Bolivia has its main office in La Paz and will soon open another office in Santa Cruz de la Sierra. While established in 2019, the partners of HLB Bolivia have over 20 years of experience in audit, outsourcing, Transfer Pricing, tax and legal consulting services. The firm is a member of the Forum of Interamerican Firms (FFI), InterAmerican Accounting Association (AIC) and its managing partner is a member of the Quality Control Commission of this international organisation.

Juan Carlos Tacachira, Managing Partner, says: “I believe that the positioning of a Firm depends on commitment, quality and international support. HLB has distinguished itself by its constant growth, and after 50 years of work it positions its brand with a good accompaniment of technology. Together we will make it happen. Our commitment is to integrate into the region and create collaborative relationships that contribute to the growth and development of the global network.”

With the addition of this new firm, HLB is continuing its strategic transformation and focus on the future. HLB Bolivia will strengthen the network’s expertise and coverage across the key economic market of Latin America.
