HLB appoints member firm in South Korea

SOUTH KOREA - HLB, the global network of independent advisory and accounting firms, continues its growth with the appointment of a new member firm in South Korea, Shinwoo Accounting Corporation.

Established in 1997, the firm provides audit, tax and consulting services and is based in Seoul, Busan and Daejeon in South Korea.

“Shinwoo is the 12th largest accounting firm in South Korea, with total staff of 200, including 100 qualified CPAs. We have always wanted a close relationship with a global network as our clients, including 34 PLC’s and their subsidiaries, do business in a global market. It is a great pleasure and an honour to be member of HLB.” Jong Pal Lee, senior partner of Shinwoo commented.

“South Korea is one of the key business destinations and largest investors in Asia Pacific,” said Coco Liu, HLB’s Chief Regional Officer for Asia Pacific. “We are delighted to welcome Shinwoo, one of the most dynamic audit firms in the country, to join HLB’s global network. Shinwoo will not only add weight to HLB’s strong capital market services capabilities, but also bring new opportunities to local clients and prospects to reach out to the global markets by using HLB’s expertise and resources.”

As one of the largest audit firms in the country with a strong potential for outbound work, Shinwoo fits perfectly into HLB’s regional development strategy.
