The Missing Link to the HLB Network

HLB are pleased to welcome The Missing Link to its global network. The Missing Link will strengthen the network's presence in Australia, New Zealand and Fiji by complementing HLB Mann Judd's capabilities for better client service. Since 1997, The Missing Link have been helping companies achieve optimum IT solutions and capabilities. Headquartered in Sydney, with presence in Melbourne and Brisbane they offer a range of consulting services, managed services, and technology solutions to clients across all sectors including financial services, government and utilities.

Abu Bakkar, HLB Chief Innovations Officer said,

"We look forward to working with the dynamic team at The Missing Link, learning from each other as we navigate the ever-evolving IT landscape. We will collaborate to expand their global reach, offering them the expertise they need in accounting and advisory services along the way."

Aaron Bailey, Co-Owner & CISO, said,

"Having partnered locally with HLB Mann Judd in Australia since 2016, helping them to achieve their secure digital transformation goals, we are honoured to join HLB. Not only do we look forward to assisting more HLB Member Firms and their clients, but we also look forward to the expanded global delivery footprint this partnership will provide to better service our existing clients with high quality secure digital outcomes."
