HLB welcomes new firm HLB PMA

Argentina– HLB is pleased to welcome HLB PMA to its global network. Based in Buenos Aires, HLB PMA was established in 2012 and services international clients. Their offerings include IT internal audit and internal audit services, cybersecurity and digital transformation. They work across a range of industries including manufacturing, telecommunications and financial services. They now join existing HLB firm, HLB Argentina, also based in Buenos Aires.

Pablo Kaplan, CEO, HLB PMA, said:

"We're really excited to be joining HLB. We see a fantastic opportunity to add value to our current and future clients, as well as our colleagues in the region and around the world. Our advisory/consulting practice has reached an optimal level of maturity to make the exponential growth leap we've been working on alongside HLB. The current market demands services in areas such as technology, cybersecurity, risk management, compliance, resilience, innovation, among others, and we're joining forces to bring these capabilities to the network from Argentina to the world."

Marco Donzelli, HLB Global CEO said:

"As we broaden our presence in LATAM, we welcome HLB PMA to our global community. Collaborating with them across their innovative service offerings will enhance the HLB ecosystem, helping us to facilitate even better engagement with our global client base."
