HLB strengthens global presence with SAPRO as strategic partner

New York / London: HLB, a global advisory and accounting network, is delighted to announce the expansion of its strategic partnership with SAPRO, a renowned global talent outsourcing firm providing expert professionals in tax, audit, and advisory services. This significant development represents a deeper commitment between the two organisations to foster collaboration and drive mutual growth.

Building on their successful collaboration, HLB and SAPRO are taking their relationship to new heights, strengthening their joint efforts to deliver exceptional value to clients and member firms. By combining their respective strengths, they aim to fortify their position as industry leaders and pioneers of innovative solutions in the global advisory and accounting landscape.

The deepened alliance between HLB and SAPRO reflects their shared vision of empowering member firms with access to top-tier talent and specialised knowledge. This partnership is designed to enhance the capabilities of HLB member firms, enabling them to thrive in a dynamic business environment and meet the evolving needs of their clients.

"We are excited to announce the strengthening of our strategic partnership with SAPRO," said Amy Spillard, HLB Head of Technology Partnerships. "This expanded collaboration opens new doors for our member firms, providing them with greater access to a diverse pool of skilled professionals and resources. Together, we are well-positioned to drive innovation, foster knowledge exchange, and create even more value for our clients globally."

SAPRO's expertise in talent outsourcing complements HLB's dedication to excellence and client-centricity. By deepening their relationship, both organisations are demonstrating their commitment to working together to co-create solutions that drive growth and success for their clients and member firms.

"We value the trust placed in us by HLB and are thrilled to further strengthen our strategic partnership," commented Julie Bonness, Senior Vice President of Global Strategic Partnerships. "By combining our talent outsourcing capabilities with HLB's global reach and expertise, we are poised to offer unmatched solutions that fuel innovation and elevate the level of service we can jointly deliver to our clients."

This deepened alliance underscores HLB's commitment to supporting member firms with the best resources and expertise available in the industry. By collaborating closely with SAPRO, HLB is reinforcing its position as a leading advisory and accounting network that empowers member firms to excel in a competitive and ever-changing business landscape.
