HLB welcome HLB Cambodia to its global community

HLB, the global advisory and accounting network, welcomes HLB Cambodia. Established in 2015, HLB Cambodia is situated in Phnom Penh City and provides an extensive array of services, including audit and assurance, accounting, taxation, and corporate advisory services. Their expertise spans various sectors, including manufacturing, trading, hospitality, and NGOs.

Kosla Hin, HLB Cambodia Managing Partner, said:

“HLB Cambodia aims to empower our team to reach their full potential to bring high quality services to a growing industry. A company is only as good as its people. Investing in people is the best investment.”

Coco Liu, HLB Chief Regional Officer, Asia Pacific & Head of Global Business Channels said:

“HLB is very pleased to welcome HLB Cambodia to join our global community and represent HLB in the last few uncovered markets in the fast-moving Southeast Asia region, that is full of potential at the moment. As an accredited audit firm with English and Chinese speaking professionals, HLB Cambodia will not only assist foreign investors going into Cambodia but will also contribute to our global initiatives like large client pursuit and Global China Service.”
