HLB welcomes HLB Liberia to its global Community

HLB, the global advisory and accounting network, proudly announces the addition of HLB Liberia to its network. Established in 1992, the firm provides a full range of services and bring a strong understanding of how government and non-governmental organisations work in the Liberian and U.S. markets, further complementing HLB's presence in West Africa.

P. Ernest Parker, Jr., Managing Partner of HLB Liberia, said:

"As the managing partner of HLB Liberia, I am proud to announce our inclusion in the prestigious HLB network. This partnership signifies our commitment to delivering exceptional service and expertise to our clients globally."

Coco Ke Liu, HLB Chief Growth Officer, said:

"HLB is very pleased to welcome HLB Liberia and HLB Togo to expand our global network to new territories. They will not only assist foreign investors going into West Africa but will also contribute to our award-winning Global China Service in the fast-moving Emerging Markets."
