HLB continues its global expansion with HLB Togo

TOGO- HLB, the global advisory and account network, welcomes HLB Togo. Established in 1973, The firm specialises in auditing and public accounting with main clients in several sectors including banking, financial institutions, industry, NGOs and Development Projects. This addition will enhance HLB's capabilities in key service lines and further solidifying its presence in West Africa.

Dr Yawo Djidotor, HLB Togo Managing Partner, said:

"We are delighted to have joined the HLB network. As we embark on this new chapter with HLB, we are thrilled about the opportunities it presents. Joining the network marks a significant milestone for us, one that promises fruitful collaboration and growth. By becoming a part of HLB, we can now participate and use the full resources of the network, enabling us to elevate our service standards and better support our diverse clients in Togo."

Marco Donzelli, HLB Global CEO, said:

"On behalf of our global community, I am happy to welcome HLB Togo to the HLB family. With over 30 years of professional experience, HLB Togo brings a deep understanding of the local markets and invaluable expertise to our network. The diverse range of services offered by the firm will significantly contribute to our ability to serve a broader client base in the West African region."
