HLB Recognised as a 2025 America's Top Most Loved Workplace®

LONDON – HLB International has been recognised as one of the 2025 America's Top Most Loved Workplaces®, highlighting its dedication to building a culture where people feel valued, connected, and inspired. This recognition underlines HLB's belief that a strong, people-centred culture is essential to delivering exceptional client service and driving sustainable growth across its member firms.

The award, backed by research from the Best Practice Institute (BPI), celebrates organisations that prioritise trust, collaboration, and employee wellbeing. Rankings are based on employee feedback, measuring sentiment, trust, respect, and alignment with purpose and values.

Marco Donzelli, HLB's Chief Executive Officer, said:

"We are incredibly proud of this recognition, which validates our ongoing investment in people and culture. Our aim is to create an environment where everyone can thrive, professionally and personally, and where belonging and collaboration are woven into everything we do. This award is a testament to our people, whose passion and commitment make HLB such a special place to work."
