LIREX AG joins HLB, bringing new expertise to the network in Liechtenstein

HLB is pleased to welcome LIREX AG to its global network of member firms, establishing a presence in Liechtenstein and further strengthening the network's capabilities in Europe.

Based in Schaan, LIREX AG is an established accounting and advisory firm providing audit and assurance, accountancy, tax and financial advisory services. The firm supports a diverse portfolio of clients, including international corporations, family businesses and family offices, state-owned companies, private and charitable foundations, and subsidiaries of listed companies.

The firm's history in Liechtenstein dates back to 1982. Today, LIREX AG brings together a team of experienced professionals with particular expertise across asset management, trusts, family offices, casinos and the construction sector. The firm also operates alongside an associated company in St. Gallen, Switzerland, supporting its cross-border perspective and ability to serve clients with international interests.

On joining HLB, Thomas Jakob, Partner at LIREX AG, said:

"Complex issues with international implications require collaboration with highly qualified experts worldwide—a capability that HLB International provides in all major business centers. Thanks to the HLB network, we support our clients in their national, regional, and global growth while ensuring a consistently high quality of service and personalized support—no matter where they operate."

Coco Liu, Chief Growth Officer of HLB, added:

“We are delighted to welcome LIREX AG to our global community. The firm brings deep local knowledge, strong technical expertise and a clear commitment to quality, making it an excellent addition to our network. We look forward to working closely with the LIREX AG team and creating new opportunities for collaboration across the network.”

As part of HLB, LIREX AG will strengthen its ability to support clients with international needs, drawing on the expertise and reach of member firms across the global network. The firm will also contribute its knowledge of the Liechtenstein market and specialist sectors to cross-border opportunities, supporting closer collaboration between HLB firms across Europe and beyond.
