HLB expands its reach in Ecuador

QUITO – HLB’s expansion into Latin America continues, as it welcomes its newest member firm in Ecuador.

The firm, previously known as EW Group will now trade as HLB Ecuador jointly with the existing HLB member firm in the country, HLB Consultores Moran Cedillo, which is headquartered in Guayaquil. EW Group is one of Quito’s leading professional services firms with expertise in audit, tax and financial advice, accounting and in legal and tax services. Established in 2014, the firm’s client base covers a variety of industries including airline, health, manufacturing, oil, gas & energy, and retail. The firm’s office is in Quito, the capital of Ecuador.

The firm is led by Managing Partner, Santiago Torres. Commenting on joining HLB, Santiago says: “For our firm it is an honour to be a member of such an important international network. Our professional experience and people will be our best assets as we approach this next exciting chapter. By joining HLB, we will improve and grow not only for our clients, but also our people.”

Marco Donzelli, CEO of HLB, comments: “We’re pleased to be welcoming EW Group and expanding our capabilities across this region. This forward-thinking firm will position HLB as a leading network in Ecuador and give domestic and international clients a competitive advantage.”

Working in close collaboration, our two member firms in the country will now provide the full range of services and geographical cover, creating a strong HLB Ecuador brand in the marketplace.
